BARROW VILLAGE FETE - SATURDAY 15TH JULY 2017

INFORMATION:

RAFFLE PRIZES:

Each vendor agrees to donate a raffle prize on the day of the event. The raffle prize donated may be one of the products that you are selling along with a business card in order to promote your business further or any other suitable prize.

NOT FOR PROFIT

BARROW VILLAGE FETE is run as a 'not for profit event'. Fees charged cover yearly running costs of the event. These include Insurance, licences, road closure, first aid, utilities, printing and advertising, fencing etc...

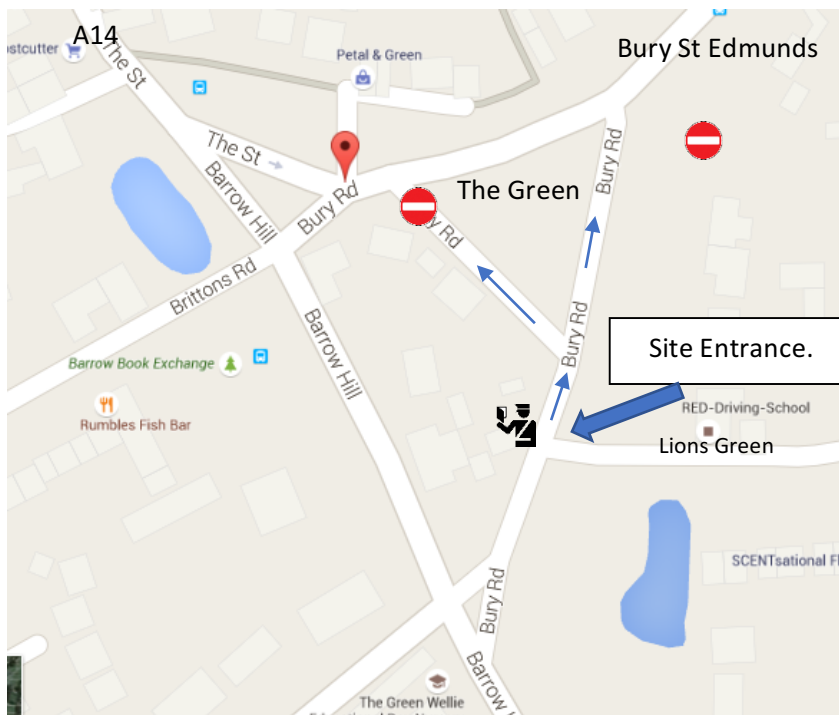

All committee members are voluntary and donate their time and resources to arrange a traditional village fete for the community.

CANCELLATION

In the event that you have to cancel your booking please inform us ASAP to allow us to contact our reserve list. This event is non-refundable. The organisers reserve the right to cancel the event if extreme weather conditions exist or other unforeseen circumstances mean the running of the event would not be safe or appropriate. In these circumstances fees will not be refundable and by submitting this booking you accept these terms.

SETTING UP AND PACKING AWAY

Stall holders will be able to have access onto the Village green from 10:30am ALL vehicles must vacate the green by 12:30.

For safety reasons, there will be a one-way system in place, starting at Lions Green towards Bury Road.

Please report to the site entrance to find out your pitch number and location.

Remember No vehicles are allowed on the grass areas, please take care driving around the site.

TABLES

You must provide your own tables and chairs.

DISCLAIMER

The organisers will consider all applications; however, they reserve the right to refuse any application without providing a reason to ensure a good mix of stalls.
